

SEATTLE Wind SYMPHONY

Larry Gookin, Artistic Director and Conductor

Presents:

Maestro Gerard Schwarz

Guest conducting the West Coast premiere of his composition for wind symphony,

"Above and Beyond"

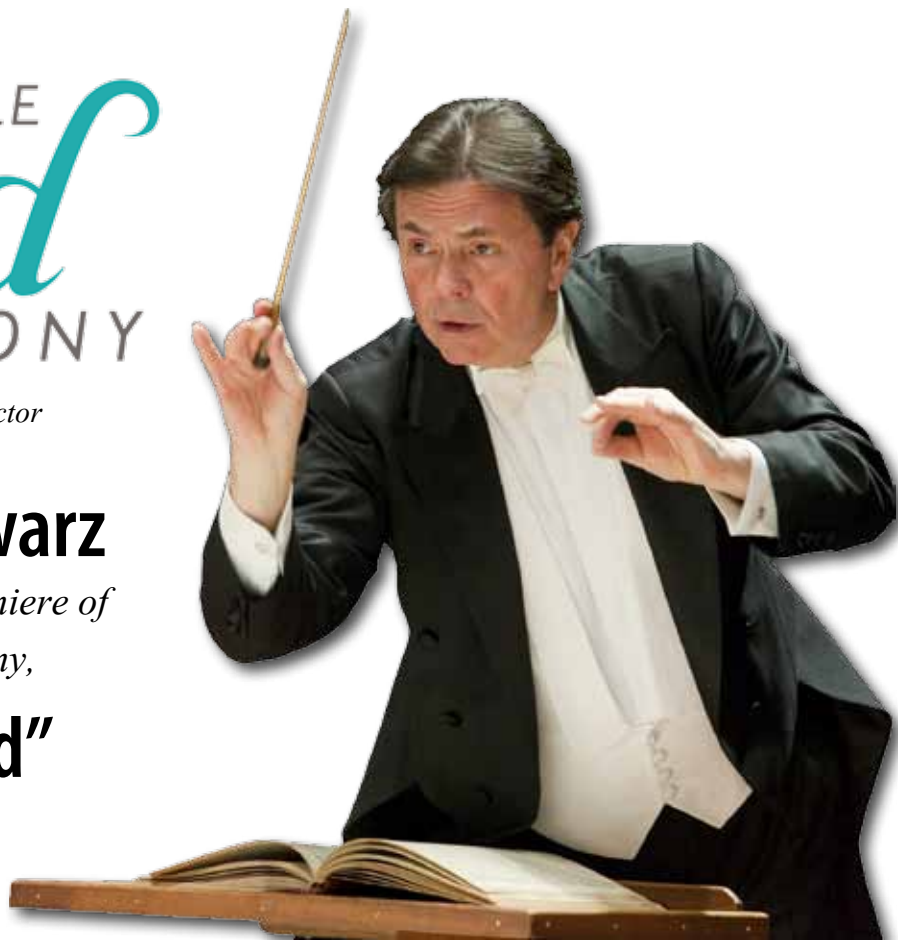

photo by Ben VanHouten

Featuring guest trumpet soloist: Brian Chin
of Seattle Pacific University

Sunday, May 5th at 3:00 PM

Meany Hall, University of Washington Campus

Near the intersection of 15th Ave NE and NE 40th St. in Seattle.

Maestro Gerard Schwarz is former Music Director and the current Conductor Laureate of the Seattle Symphony. Brian is a recording artist, international trumpet soloist, Assistant Professor of Music and Director of Instrumental Studies at Seattle Pacific University.

The Seattle Wind Symphony brings a new, exciting, large concert band sound to the Puget Sound area. A wind symphony is a symphonic group made up of woodwinds, brass and percussion --no strings attached. Seattle Wind Symphony is conducted by Larry Gookin, Central Washington University Director of Bands

kennellykeysmusic.com

musicworksnw.org

Tickets: $20 for adults - $5 for students

Available at all Kennelly Keys Music locations, brownpapertickets.com or at the door.

Please visit seattlewindsymphony.org for more information.